

allow / go

assume / be

hear / sneeze

remember / tell

smell / burn

I had just arrived at the International Adventure Camp in Florida. They had spent the afternoon assigning us to our cabins and telling us all the rules. The evening meal was pizza. Now it was after ten o'clock and we were all ¹ in bed asleep. I was still awake, stretched out on the uncomfortable camp bed, when I ² someone outside the cabin window. Just once, then silence. I ³ the camp leader us that we weren't ⁴ outside after dark. Someone was breaking that rule. Then I thought I could ⁵ a cigarette There was another rule against that.